COVID-19 pandemic

In response to the continued global threat to health and safety posed by COVID-19, local advice in the Netherlands to limit the spread of COVID-19, and in view of the upcoming AGM, ST is committed to keeping its shareholders, employees and other stakeholders healthy and safe. We are therefore taking precautionary measures to limit the risk of infection for all involved in our business operations. This approach will also be applied to our AGM. Therefore, in addition to attending the AGM in person, shareholders are offered the possibility to exercise their voting rights by internet or proxy.

ST will continue to closely monitor the situation and may adopt additional security measures if required (such as further limiting the physical participation to the AGM to core attendees only, as permitted by law) and, if considered appropriate by ST, may switch the set-up of the AGM to a hybrid or virtual format. Further announcements in this respect, if any, shall be published on ST's website.

Record date

In accordance with Dutch law and article 30.2 of the Company's Articles of Association, persons entitled to attend and, to the extent applicable, vote at the AGM will be those who were recorded as having those rights on 27 April 2022 at close of markets (the "Record Date") in a register designated by the Managing Board for that purpose, regardless of whether they are shareholders or other persons entitled to attend general meetings of shareholders of the Company at the time of the AGM. This means that registered shareholders and other persons entitled to attend the AGM need to hold their shares in the capital of the Company or be otherwise entitled to attend general meetings of shareholders of the Company on the Record Date, but they do not need to continue to hold their shares or remain entitled until the AGM.
